Personal Statement

Please type.

In assessing your candidacy, it is important for us to see a demonstration of written competency, evidence of self-directed learning, and an articulation of your professional and educational goals. In short, tell us about yourself in a 2–3 page personal statement. Personal statements should be typed double spaced and attached to your application. Persons applying through the Alternative Admissions process will address these questions and, in addition, refer to the Personal Statement requirements in the Alternative Admissions brochure.

In this essay, please focus on the following areas:

1. What have been your most significant learning experiences? Please provide some examples.
2. What is your learning style, and how do you go about solving problems?
3. Why are you considering coming to Antioch University New England at this time in your life? What do you hope to get from the experience professionally and personally? What do you have to contribute to Antioch New England and to your field?

For purposes of licensure and certification, there are certain practice limitations imposed on those within the mental health and teaching professions. We ask this question so that we may be able to advise you appropriately. Have you ever been convicted of, or entered a plea for, or do you have charges pending against you for, a crime other than a minor traffic violation? Yes No
If yes, please attach a statement of explanation.

I certify that the information contained in this application is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that all the materials submitted become the property of Antioch University New England and are used for admissions purposes only, unless otherwise specified. I also understand that no materials will be returned to me or transferred to a third party.

Supplementary Application

WALDORF TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM

Name _____
Last First Middle

Have you completed and returned the Waldorf Education Foundation Studies Questionnaire? Yes No
The questionnaire is available at www.antiochne.edu/ed/waldorf/fs_letter.cfm

Applicants to the Waldorf Teacher Education Program are requested to complete this Supplementary Application form in addition to the standard Antioch University New England Application for Admission. Please answer the following questions in your own handwriting. You may use the back of this paper and extra sheets if necessary.

Please return completed Supplementary Application to the Office of Admissions.

1. Please describe your interest in becoming a Waldorf teacher, giving a short biographical statement concerning:
 - a) Your reading of Rudolf Steiner's work in anthroposophy and any involvement in the practical application of his work.
 - b) The length of time of your involvement with these concepts and the nature of your activity—workshops, courses, study groups, Foundation Year studies, etc.
 - c) Please indicate any previous connections you have had with Waldorf education, such as being a parent, an assistant in crafts or some kindergarten work, other teaching involvement, or volunteer work such as a board member, etc.

2. Please describe the path of events leading you to pursue Steiner's work, and how this has evolved into your wishing to be a teacher in a Waldorf School.

After evaluating your experience with and knowledge of Steiner/anthroposophy, faculty will determine whether you have sufficient background to enter immediately or whether you need to pursue further study. If further study is needed, the Waldorf Program director will contact you with information regarding possible study plans.

Note: Adequate background in anthroposophy is required for acceptance into the Antioch University New England Waldorf Teacher Education Program. Applicants are advised to take into consideration the time necessary for this preparation.
