

Individualized Program Plan

Bonnie Hudspeth
April 11, 2008

Title

Environmental Advocacy and Journalism

Course List:

Required Courses (18 credits)

Biosphere science (ESS):

Earth Systems Science
Soil Ecology

Civic Ecology (ESP):

Environmental Writing
Ecological Economics and Public Policy

Natural Communities (ESF):

Community Ecology of NE
Mount Desert Island
Coastal Ornithology

Individualized Core (12 credits)

Writing for the Real World
Principles of Sustainability in Complex Systems
Advocacy Clinic
Grant writing
Forest Ecosystem Analysis

Electives (9 credits)

Patterns of Environmental Activism
Natural and Human Landscapes of AK
Monadnock Ecological Research and Education Project

Practicum (8 credits)

Earthwork Program (4 credits)
Pisgah Project (4 credits)

Special Project (3 credits)

Monadnock Food Cooperative Development Project,
Monadnock Farm and Community Connection

Course Sequence:

Semester 1: Fall 2006

ESF 550: Community Ecology of the New England Landscape
ESS 572: Earth Systems Science: Planetary Dynamics
ESCO 527: Environmental Writing
ESP 524: Patterns of Environmental Activism

Semester 2: Spring 2007

ESS 578: Principles of Sustainability in Complex Systems
ESS 573: Soil Ecology
ESF 548: Natural and Human Landscapes of Alaska
ES 693: Practicum Seminar, Practicum-General, Earthwork Programs at BEEC
Brattleboro, VT

Semester 3: Summer 2007

ESS 558: Forest Ecosystem Analysis
ESF 542: Coastal Ornithology

Semester 4: Fall 2007

ES 518: Advocacy Clinic I
ESP 601: Ecol. Economics/Public Policy
ES 693: Practicum-General: Moosewood Ecological Keene, NH

Semester 5: Spring 2008

ES 699A: Master's Project
ESCE 629: Writing for the Real World
ESACO 503: Proposal Writing & Grant
ES 690W: SIS-Elective: Monadnock Ecological Research and Education Project
ESF 540: Ecosystems Mt Desert Island

Credit Total = 54

